AURALEX EXPANDS EUROPEAN DISTRIBUTION

Selects Two New Distributors for Scandinavia, Greece and Cyprus

Indianapolis, IN, April 24, 2006--Auralex Acoustics, Inc., the industry leader in innovative sound control solutions, has announced two new distributors in the European market. New Musik A/S will handle distribution in Scandinavia and Stollas SA will cover Greece and Cyprus.

"We are very happy with Auralex' products as they complement our existing lines very well," says Michael Nyborg, sales manager of New Musik. "Their products enjoy widespread use among many prominent artists, producers, engineers and corporations alike and also meet the demands from our customers." New Musik specializes in the pro audio industry and carries the following brands: Genelec, Mipro, Mackie, DigiCo, Focusrite, Groove Tubes, Clavia, RCF, KV2, Echo Audio, Native Instruments and CME.

Stollas SA is the exclusive distributor for many brands such as Fender, Mesa, Takamine, Remo, Pearl, Roland, Edirol, Boss, Behringer, Fbt, Alto, Echo Audio, Quiklok and Leem. "Our main concern is to supply the musician and the studio owner with everything required to play, gig, rehearse and record," notes Christos Galanopoulos, Stollas' pro audio specialist. Stollas is home to more than 70 brands in their sales network with an inventory of audio gear in exceeding 10,000..

Both new distributors supply a wide range of professional audio products and are active in system design and configuration. Their customer base includes radio and television broadcasters, film studios, concert venues, theatres, colleges and universities, sound reinforcement companies, engineers and performers.
